

March 2016

Fused Glass Workshop, March 15—

Sign Up Fast!

Mary Johannessen's workshop on making fused glass pendants will take place at 1:30 P.M. on Tuesday, March 15, in the Town Center's Flint Room; a maximum of 18 people can participate. There are only a few more open spots, so be sure to register ASAP if you are interested by e-mailing info@bacsma.org or calling or e-mailing president Sylvia Mallory (275-6757; slmal@hotmail.com). The cost for you to make two beautiful pendants is just $15 for all materials and firing. Bring cash or a check for $15 made out to Mary Johannessen, not to BACS. If you want to attend and just watch, feel free to do so—there will be no cost for being an observer.

New Watercolor Class

Don't miss out on the exciting new 6-week watercolor class, “Watercolor Techniques and Experiments,” being offered jointly by

BACS and Bedford Recreation! Online signups begin Sunday, March 6, at 9:00 P.M. at the Bedford Recreation Department site, or you can register by calling or visiting Bedford Rec in the Town Center Building. You can preview the course at the following link by scrolling through the pages using the down arrow:

BACS 60th Anniversary Dinner, May 11

Join us in celebrating BACS's 60th anniversary on Wednesday, May 11, at Scutra Restaurant in Arlington. Festivities will begin at 6:30 pm for social and 7:00 pm for dinner. A cash bar will be available. Carpooling will be provided for those who need it. More information will follow via invitation at the end of March. Responses will be needed by April 15. A fun event is being planned, so save the date and be ready to make your reservation!

Bedford Day Crafts Committee

Anita Feld is chairing the committee to plan and assemble craft items for sale on Bedford Day in September. Thank you, Anita! If you are interested in participating on the committee and/or in making the crafts, contact Anita: 339-223-0960; afeld3454@gmail.com

Jacob Wren Throckmorton Art Show

This memorial show will be held at the COA on the second weekend in April—specifically, April 8 and 9. Submission of art pieces done in any medium is open to anyone over 55 years of age. For information and an entry form, see the BACS website, www.bacsma.org with refreshing the exhibits in the Flint Room and the COA space at the Town Center. It is a small commitment—just 2–3 hours twice a year (November and May). If you are interested, contact Laura Wallace (275-5498; LBW@twallace.net). We will be grateful for your help!

Exhibits in the COA Computer Room

The Bedford Council on Aging is showcasing wall art in the Computer Room at the COA. A few BACS members are already exhibiting paintings there. If you're interested in hanging your work, contact Laura Wallace or Jeanne Reidy.

In Search of a Van . . .

We are urgently in need of a  to transport items for Bedford Day. If you have a van and can help out with getting materials to the BACS booth site in the Town Center area, please contact Anita Feld, our crafts chair: 339-223-0960; afeld3454@gmail.com to Emily O'Hara, who is recuperating from an illness. She would appreciate your cards and good wishes. You can mail a card to her at the Whittier Rehabilitation Hospital, 145 Ward Hill Avenue, Bradford, MA 01835.
