

May 2016

BACS's 60th

anniversary celebration takes place Wednesday, May 11, at Scutra Restaurant in Arlington. Festivities will begin at 6:30 pm for social and 7:00 pm for dinner. Carpooling is available; let Evelyn Rice (275-8853) know if you wish to be a driver or passenger.

Hear ye, hear ye!!

The following slate of officers will be voted upon at the May 17 BACS evening program. Please plan to attend.

President: Sylvia Mallory
Vice President: Jeanne Reidy
Secretary: Laura Wallace
Treasurer: Dawn Warrington

Next BACS program: May 17

BACS is sponsoring a drawing demonstration by Sue Funk on Tuesday, May 17, at 6:30 pm in the meeting room of the Bedford Public Library. Visit Sue's website to see her work: www.suefunk.com

Don't miss this entertaining presentation! Hands-on participation is welcomed.

Sue regularly teaches drawing at the Bedford COA and other venues.

Sue's most recent project is a book she wrote and illustrated to help children heal from trauma. Titled It's Okay to Feel This Way, the book is available from Sue or via www.amazon.com

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Bedford Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Display your art

BACS members have the opportunity to have artwork on display in two places in the Town Center: the Flint Room and the COA Computer Room. Would you like to have your artwork shown? Just bring it to the Flint Room (2nd floor Town Center) on Thursday, May 26, between 10am and noon. If you have questions or cannot come, please call Laura Wallace or Jeanne Reidy. If you have artwork currently on display, please come pick it up.

“Collaborations” art show

Judi Babcock has a painting on display at the current Grace Chapel juried exhibition, “Collaborations.”

Congratulations, Judi! For details on the show, go to www.grace.org/artgallery/

May 23 workshop for Bedford Day in preparation for Bedford Day. Please attend at 1:00-4:00, Monday, May 23, if you can. Workstations will be set up in the Bedford Public Library Meeting Room for sea glass jewelry crafting and one or two other crafts, such as card making and paper bead making. Bring materials for the station you choose to work at if you have them. Examples of what to bring: crafters’ pliers (round nose and flat nose), card stock, rubber stamps, ink pads, scissors, glue, assorted beads for crafting into necklaces and bracelets, old magazines, rulers, etc. For information and to RSVP, call Anita Feld: 339-223-0960.

Congratulatory wishes

BACS has received warm congratulations from Margrit Mason and Merry Gerber, who regrettably are unable to attend the 60th anniversary celebration. They extend their sincere wishes to all for a happy and festive time.

Good cheer

Emily O’Hara continues to recover from her illness and is deeply grateful for all the wonderful cards, calls, and visits she has received.

Parting thoughts

It is only well with me when I have a chisel in my hand.

--Michelangelo

Be well, and chisel away!
